CAPR 62-2
21 December 2010
Safety
Mishap Reporting and Investigation

CAPR 62-2, Mishap Reporting and Investigation, 27 November 2007 and Change 1, 7 December 2007, Change 2, 7 October 2010 is supplemented with the material below. This supplement replaces Nevada Wing Supplement 2 dated 1 January 2009 in its entirety.

1. All Nevada wing personnel involved in or witnessing a mishap as defined in CAPR 62-2 shall immediately notify the unit or activity commander. All mishaps in the Nevada Wing will be promptly reported via telephone to the persons listed below. This requirement does not take precedence over emergency responder (911) requests. This reporting requirement is IN ADDITION TO the requirements in CAPR 62-2.
2. The telephone report to the Nevada wing may also request a Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) team pursuant to CAPR 60-5. A request for a CISM team must be made to the wing commander.
3. Each person making a report to the Nevada wing shall include a call back telephone number.
4. Each of the persons listed below is obligated to notify the other persons on this list. The preferred telephone number is in bold.

Rank	Name	Section	Business	Cell	Home
Col	Ralph L. Miller	CC	775.586.9595	775.450.9018	775.586.9595
